Safe , effective, drug-free, clinically proven, easy solutions for facilitating healthy apiary populations.

Remedi Animal Solution's set of clinically tested homeopathic formulas for your bees can provide both treatment and prevention options, with impressive results, to avoid any use of antibiotics and death loss. The remedies allow you to have healthy, clean, non-medicated and profitable apiculture. Cost-effective at 90 cents an application with simple dosing recommendations provided below. Custom applications are available for your operation by appointment to solve any special challenges you could encounter. WE WILL GLADLY PROVIDE PRODUCT SUPPORT! Our years of positive testimonials include success with parasite prevention, "alternative immunization" called homeopathic prophylaxis for bee diseases and increased mineral absorption for strong healthy hives with overall healthier colonies - diminishing, if not eliminating, costly treatment or losses without anti-biotics or anti-virals. These remedies qualify organic for all of your apiary products. Remedies are safe and easy to use.

HOMEOPATHY IS COST-EFFECTIVE COVERAGE Packaged in a concentrated form for diluting.

Method 1

Make a syrup and provide in proximity to hives. Start with a 1 gal milk jug 1/2 full of water adding 1/2 tsp of the remedy concentrate shaking vigorously 10 times. Add 2 cups of honey or sugar shaking again to dissolve. All remedies can be delivered in this cost effective and efficient method. 30 - 1/2 tsp doses in each bottle.

Method 2

Prepare a "grease cake" with 1 part fat to 1 part sugar or honey and 1/2 tsp remedy concentrate. Mix well and deposit above the brood nest or chamber. Do not mix with essential oils or menthol products. These remedies are very effective alone and are substantially faster and more efficient without odorous oils.

Method 3

A sprayer may be used to spray the hive by using a gallon sprayer 1/2 full of water, adding a1/2 tsp of the concentrate and shake vigorously against the palm of your hand. Apply with a gentle spray. It's a safe solution for your bee's and bee products.

These remedy formulas have been in use for over 20 years with great clinical results. You now have access to this homeopathic proprietary blends for facilitating your investment to the best of natural health. Both cost-effective and simple options for application to your hives are provided in sgrž hmnd shd guide. Remedies are concentrated and are used diluted in water, syrup, or a cake like patty or a provided water supply. Customized methods are available to fit your operation by calling our accommodating office staff.

Today the FDA regulations regarding homeopathy include criteria for making claims of effectiveness using scientific standards. Scientific standards by definition include theory, followed by testing and then replication to establish claims of effectiveness. Over the last 20 years our formulas have been aggressively tested on thousands of animals with compromised health conditions. The results have been impressive to say the least! Feel free to contact us for support.

COMMON QUESTIONS about Natural Medicine

1. What is the difference in types of holistic healing?

Homeopathy uses ultra-diluted natural substances in the form of nano-doses, that send messages to the nervous system to instigate a healing response, like the starter in your car instigating it to run with a spark. What makes homeopathy unique is the healing begins through a mucus membrane to the brains nervous system to deliver a fast and efficient healing response. Remedies have been in use for over 200 years. These unique formulations have been tested for the unique challenges of todays bees and their hives. Remedies are FDA regulated (unlike herbs and supplements).

Chiropractic heals through the nervous system as well, by physically moving where you could be "pinched-impaired", allowing electrical flow to normalize function and heal.

Acupuncture works similarly, by stimulating movement with a needle or pressure to heal.

All three above are working to influence balance, improving overall health via the nervous system.

Naturopathy is commonly facilitating healing with herbal products and dietary recommendations. Herbs and food are physical substances requiring assimilation through the digestive system. Herbs, like pharma, may be used to treat symptoms and are supportive for health. Essential Oils could be added to this type of healing.

2. What about diet?

Diet is supportive. Bees and other animals with healthy diets still have issues with environmental issues like mold, and drought. Additional challenges of chemically treated forage or crops diminish vitality and longevity. There is additional healing potential beyond good diets. Immune Boost, Pro-Vitality and Parasite Formulas do prevention.

3. How soon can I expect results?

Prevention is immediate, and application of monthly doses very effective. Effects of treatment can be seen in 24 hours. Treatment should be repeated as indicated using methods 1, 2 or 3.
